COMPANY OVERVIEW

Challenger Resource Collective, LLC is a full-service health, fitness, wellness & lifestyle consulting, procurement & management company.

We provide on-site and virtual services for a broad spectrum of clients. Our services begin from the design phase of your facility and ends with the maintenance and cleaning for a spotless workspace.

TECHNICAL SERVICES

Our competitive advantage is leveraged by three key factors: our people, experience, and value proposition. Our goal is to establish a long-term relationship not bound by the duration of the engagement but your organizational goals. We want to learn your cultural environment and develop solutions that are client not industry focused. We pride ourselves on being available, accessible, responsive, and delivering quality to our clients.
